“ Jackie and Rusty were two of the first family members I met. Jackie was always very friendly and kind to me and my kids. We became better friends on Facebook. She was a beautiful light and I will miss her selflessness.

“ Jackie could make me laugh when I wanted to cry. Life was hard especially with the cancer diagnosis, but she wanted to live fully and pack in as many good memories with her children as she could. She was so full of compassion and forgiveness for people who probably didn’t deserve another chance. She saw good in everyone. She was a lover and a fighter. She put up a really good fight. We all wanted more time with her. I’ll always love you, always think of you, and I’ll see you later.

“ I didn't know you personally, Jackie, but your father-in-law, Russell, talked often about what a strong- brave girl you were, how you fought like a champion, and what a wonderful wife and mother you were to his son and grandchildren. I know You are now free and dancing with Jesus. I also know Jesus is holding Rusty and the children very close to His heart. He will comfort them, strengthen them, and protect them. Jesus won't leave their sides for a second. Jackie, you will be dearly missed by all who knew you and loved you. Your life was a gift from God. A bright light has gone out on earth, and a bright light has gone on in heaven. We are praying for Rusty, the children, and your entire family. Rest in peace, Sweet Jackie.
